The Editor.

A small boys essay.

"I don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does, for He ain't got nothing to say about them. A editor is one of the missing links you read about, and must have staved in the bushes until after the flood, and then came out and wrote the thing up, and has been here ever since. I don't think ne ever dies. I never saw a dead one, and I never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a nighty good one; but the editor roes without underclothes all winter and don't wear any socks, and paw ain't paid his subscripion since the paper started. I ast paw if that was why the edtor had to suck the juice out of snow balls in winter and go to bed when he had a shirt washed n the summer. And then paw ook me out into the wood shed and he licked me awful. If the ditor makes a mistake folks say ne ought to be hung, but if a loctor makes any mistakes he puries 'em, and people dassent ay anything, cause doctors can ead and write Latin. When a ditor makes a mistake there is awsuits, but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowrs and perfect silence. A docor can use a word a yard long vithout him or nobody knowing vhat it means; but if the editor ises one he has to spell it. If he doctor goes to see an other nan's wife he charges for the risit; but if the editor goes he rets a charge of buckshot. When doctor gets drunk it's a case of vercome by heat, and if he dies t's from heart trouble: when an ditor gets drunk it's a case of oo much booze, and if he dies t's the jim-jams; any old college can make a doctor; a editor has to born. - Exchange.

One of the reasons why there re so many failures is because here are so many people who vaste their time trying to do hings that wouldn't amount to nything if they were done.

The fat mans weight may be educed by starvation. The fat pusiness may be reduced by cuting out the advertising. ean business can be built by adertising of th right sort just as he lean man can be fattered with the right sort of food.

Word reaches us that the brick work on the thirty-five by seveny, three story addition to the Academy Building at Snowflake s now completed and it now seems posible to have this much needed addition ready for the ora pening of the next term of school,

About two years ago a Social Hall was well under way in coffstruction, but unfortunately it was stung by a "sleeping-fly, which by many was supposed to be fatal, but to the supprise of he public it now show signs of twakening and may yet live to be completed.

With the prospect of the completion of the Academy and Social Hall and assurence of a good apple crop the "Athens" of Navajo County now puts on unusual urs of prosperity.

John Divelbess of Pinedale, was in town Wednesday, shaking hands with his many friends. While here he found time to make us a call. Mr. Divelbess was at onetime a newspaperman, editor of the Argus.
